WELCOME TO THE 2015 AME!

Dear AME Attendees:

Learn, network and maintain your role as a leader in nutrition science, health and policy.

Welcome to the New York Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics 85th Annual Meeting and Expo (AME), the largest annual meeting of New York State’s food and nutrition professionals!

This year’s dynamic program offers engaging educational sessions, timely keynote presentations by nationally-known speakers, dedicated time for poster sessions and the Expo—featuring some of the nation’s and state’s top vendors displaying the latest products and services available in the nutrition field today—and the opportunity to earn up to 12 continuing education credits.

Whether this is your first AME or your 50th, we extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to you and your organization for your attendance and participation. Thanks for helping to keep New York eating healthy, growing healthy, and living healthy!

In health,

The 2015 AME Planning Committee

WHY A NEW NAME?

New Yorkers need expert nutrition information—and Nutrition Professionals need educational and legislative support in their important work. The Board of Directors is repositioning our professional organization—bringing new life and energy to what we do for our members and fellow professionals—and a new name was chosen to reflect this spirit, energy, mission, and to further align New York State with nationwide efforts to promote good nutrition. Welcome to the new NYSAND!
